There is no information available in the files as to the hours of attendance of the Med. officer attached to the Dispensary located in the Public Offices. Only in his D.O letter dated 15th July 1909 Mr. B. D. Raghavendra has requested this office for certain furniture &c for the use of the medical officer on duty here in the afternoon? If approved the hours of attendance will be definitely ascertained from Mr. B. D. Raghavendra Rao demi-officially

Dear Mr. Raghavendra Rao,

I shall feel highly obliged if you can kindly let me know the hours during which the Medical Officer attached to the Dispensary located in the Public offices is required to remain on duty in the Public offices.

Yours sincerely,

"I understand that the Officer attends his Dispensary at about 4 P.M. in the afternoon. Perhaps he attends an hour or so. If this is so, he cannot be of much use to the Officials.

Will there be any objection to his being asked to attend the Dispensary at the usual Officers' hours; ~~in the~~ same day?
